

250-992-RAFT (7238)

Big Canyon Rafting

Lower Chilcotin River Trip

Overview:

A full day trip on the lower section of the Chilcotin River. The put-in for this section is at Farwell Canyon and the take-out is at Churn Creek, on the Fraser River.

This is an oar-operated whitewater rafting trip, with some paddle assistance from the guests.

Where to meet:

Meet at Ceal Tingley Park in Quesnel @ 7:00am
(or meet in Williams Lake @ 9:00am)

Trip finishes in Williams Lake at approximately 6:30pm.

Trip finishes at Ceal Tingley Park in Quesnel @ approximately 8:00pm.

Trip features:

Awesome scenery and amazing whitewater.

Experience some fantastic rafting on the turquoise waters of the Chilcotin River. Paddle past the giant hoodoos and through the Class IV whitewater deep below the towering walls of Farwell Canyon. Down the exciting, continuous Class IV rapids of Big John's Canyon and into the Mighty Fraser River. Float down this huge waterway and soak up the scenery, and sandy beaches on the way to the take-out at Churn Creek. Keep an eye open for Eagles, Bears, Moose, Deer, Cows and California Bighorn Sheep.

Classification:

Beginner to Intermediate

Class II – Class IV

Suitable for ages 15 and up

What is included:

Shuttle from downtown Quesnel/Williams Lake to river put-in at Farwell Canyon.

Buffet style lunch on river, with snacks and beverages.

All safety equipment, including Helmets and PFDs (personal flotation device).

Optional fleece vests and splash tops are available for use as well.

What to bring/wear:

- clothes that can get wet and will dry easily - quick dry shorts or pants depending on how warm the day is,
- hat, sunglasses with a strap, sunscreen,
- sandals with a strong heel strap or running shoes that can get soaked,
- bring a waterproof camera if you like,
- any required medications, and
- extra warm, dry clothes for after the trip.

Operating season:

Best dates to run this section: July, August, September

Contact us for available dates!

Rates:

$169.00 – adult / $159 - youth

Group, corporate and weekday rates available!